WAXMAN WINS HIGH MARK FROM LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

In the official "political Accountability Ratings" done by the League of Women Voters for the last session of Congress, Rep. Henry A. Waxman (D-Los Angeles) scored 89%.

Waxman's high rating was based on his having voted in agreement with the League of Women Voters on nine out of ten key congressional votes. Among these key bills were measures to block construction of new nuclear plants, two bills to levy substantial windfall profits taxes on oil companies and major legislation to streamline decision-making procedures on energy projects.

Waxman was among the top 17 California congressmen (out of a delegation of 43) in the League of Women Voters ratings.
